Supporting Evidence: Paul Belis is considered in violation of his term of supervised release as he failed to notify the probation officer of his change in residence and living situation. Mr. Belis completed a monthly report form on May 20, 2014, after he released from federal custody. He also completed a monthly report form on May 21, 2014, when he reported to the U.S. Probation office. Both forms indicated his residence to be 1806 N. 13th Avenue, Pasco, Washington. This officer was advised by residents at that address that Mr. Belis is not living at this residence and has not been staying there before or after his arrest on May 19, 2014. This officer was also informed there is a 7 week old baby at the home. This would preclude the defendant from residing in this home as he has a no minor child contact condition and there are no approved sponsors. The defendant has not provided the probation officer or the Franklin County Sheriff's Office with information of his whereabouts or new address.

Special Condition # 22: You shall undergo a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement, absent further order of the court. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay.

Supporting Evidence: Paul Belis is considered in violation of his term of supervised release as he has failed to comply with attending his mental health appointment on May 22, 2014.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Belis was released by the Court to attend his mental health appointment at Nueva Esperanza on May 22, 2014. This officer confirmed with Nueva Esperanza that the defendant's appointment was scheduled for 10:00 a.m., and he failed to report for the appointment and he did not call their office to notify of needing to reschedule.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: May 22, 2010
